INDEX TO THE FOURTEENTH VOLUME OF THE FORUM.

ABBOTT, FRANCES M. How to solve the housekeeping problem, 778.
A Chinaman on our treatment of China, 85.
ADAMS, CHARLES FRANCIS. Municipal government: lessons from the experience of Quincy, Mass., 282.
ADAMS, HENRY C. Popular education at the University of Michigan, 123.
ADDAMS, JANE. A new impulse to an old gospel, 345.
ADDAMS, JANE. Hull House, Chicago: an effort toward social democracy, 226.
Alarming proportion of venal voters, the, 1.
ALDRICH, N. W. The McKinley act and the cost of living, 242.
A practical remedy for evils of immigration, 805.
Are Scott, Dickens, and Thackeray obsolete? 503.
Artistic triumph of the fair-builders, the, 527.
Art of writing history, the, 715.
"A tariff for revenue": what it really means, 51.
BABCOCK, KENDRIC C. Scandinavians in the Northwest, the, 103.
BACON, HENRY. Shall the State-bank tax be repealed? 571.
Baltimore: our public-school system, evils in, 145.
BILLINGS, J. S. Medicine as a career, 725.
BLACK, CHAUNCEY F. The lesson of Homestead: a remedy for labor troubles, 14.
Boston, the public schools of, 753.
Brandy and socialism: the Gothenburg plan, 514.
BROOKS, JOHN GRAHAM. Brandy and socialism: the Gothenburg plan, 514.
Campaign committees: a plan for more effective management, 39; publicity as a cure for corruption, 26.
Can moral conduct be taught in schools? 673.
CANNON, H. W. For whom I shall vote and why, 402.
Career, medicine as a, 725; politics as a, 445.
CARROLL, H. K. Religious progress of the negro, 75.
CHADWICK, J. W. Why the fair must be open on Sunday, 541.
CHAMBERLAIN, JOSEPH. Municipal institutions in America and England, 267.
Chinaman on our treatment of China, a, 85.
Cholera, how to prevent the coming of, 743; the lesson of preceding epidemics, 133.
Church, the enlarged, 67.
Civil-service reform: a decade of the merit system, 216; a review of two administrations, 201.
CLAFLIN, JOHN. For whom I shall vote and why, 397.
Columbian exposition, Sunday and the, 194.
Committees: a plan for more effective management, campaign, 39; publicity as a cure for corruption, 26.
Corruption, campaign committees; publicity as a cure for, 26.
Cost of living, the McKinley act and the, 242.
CRAWFORD, F. MARION. Emotional tension and the modern novel, 735; what is a novel? 591.
Crisis in silver, the, 553.
DAVIS, R. MEANS. The matter with the small farmer, 381.
Decade of the merit system; civil-service reform, a, 216.
Dialect in literature, 465.
Dickens, and Thackeray obsolete? are Scott, 503.
DOYLE, JOHN T. Civil-service reform: a decade of the merit system, 216.
EDMUNDS, GEORGE F. Politics as a career, 445.
Education at the University of Michigan, popular, 123.

Education has failed, wherein popular, 411.
Effort toward social democracy; Hull House, Chicago, an, 226.
ELIOT, CHARLES W. Wherein popular education has failed, 411.
Emotional tension and the modern novel, 735.
Endowed theatres and the American stage, 337.
England, literary and municipal problems in, 644.
English views of the McKinley tariff, 310.
Enlarged church, the, 67.
Fair-builders, the artistic triumph of the, 527.
Fair must be open on Sunday, why the, 541.
Farmer, the matter with the small, 381.
FARRER, THOMAS H. English views of the McKinley tariff, 310.
FAWCETT, MILLICENT G. Women in English politics, 453.
FIELD, DAVID DUDLEY. For whom I shall vote and why, 403; the primary the pivot of reform, 189.
For whom I shall vote and why, 390, 393, 395, 397, 398, 401, 402, 403.
Free trade? has England profited by, 324.
French political stability and economic unrest, 653.
Future, of poetry, the, 768; the literature of the, 178.
GEFFCKEN, F. H. German socialism and literary sterility, 660.
GIBBS, HENRY HUCKS. The crisis in silver, 571.
GLEED, C. S. The wealth and business relations of the West, 631.
Gospel, a new impulse to an old, 345.
Gothenburg plan; brandy and socialism, the, 514.
GOULD and socialism, Jay, 686.
Government: lessons from the experience of Quincy, Mass., municipal, 282.
HADLEY, ARTHUR T. Jay Gould and socialism, 686.
HARRISON, FREDERIC. Literary and municipal problems in England, 644.
HARTER, MICHAEL D. Campaign committees; a plan for more effective management, 39.
Has England profited by free trade? 324.
History, the art of writing, 715.
HOLDEN, EDWARD S. What we really know about Mars, 359.
Homestead: a remedy for labor troubles, the lesson of, 14.
Housekeeping problem: how to solve the, 778.
HOWE, E. W. Provincial peculiarities of Western life, 91.
How should a city care for its poor? 474.
How to prevent the coming of cholera, 743.
How to solve the housekeeping problem, 778.
Hull House, Chicago: an effort toward social democracy, 226.
Immigrants contribute to industry, what, 600.
Immigration, a practical remedy for evils of, 805.
Imminent danger from the silver-purchase act, 789.
Indianapolis, the public schools of St. Louis and, 429.
Institutions in America and England, municipal, 267.
JAY GOULD and socialism, 686.
Laborers in Pennsylvania, the mine, 110.
Labor troubles, the lesson of Homestead; a remedy for, 14.
LECKY, W. E. H. The art of writing history, 715.
Lesson of Homestead: a remedy for labor troubles, the, 14.
Lesson of preceding epidemics, cholera: the, 133.
LÉVY-BRUHL, L. French political stability and economic unrest, 653.
Library of the United States, the, 369.
Literary and municipal problems in England, 644.
Literature, dialect in, 465.
Literature of the future, the, 178.
LOTI, PIERRE. The literature of the future, 178.
MACVEAGH, FRANKLIN. For whom I shall vote and why, 395.
MALLOCK, W. H. Are Scott, Dickens, and Thackeray obsolete? 503.
Mars, what we really know about, 359.
MASHAM, LORD. Has England profited by free trade? 324.
Matter with the small farmer, the, 381.
MCCLURG. For whom I shall vote and why, 398.
MCCOOK, J. J. The alarming proportion of venal voters, 1; venal voting: methods and remedies, 159.
McKinley, act and the cost of living, the, 242; tariff, English views of the, 310.
Medicine as a career, 725.
Michigan, popular education at the University of, 123.
Mine laborers in Pennsylvania, the, 110.

MODJESKA, HELENA. Endowed theatres and the American stage, 337.
MOORE, CHARLES LEONARD. The future of poetry, 768.
Moral conduct be taught in schools? can, 673.
Municipal government: lessons from the experience of Quincy, Mass., 282.
Municipal institutions in America and England, 267.
Necessity for a national quarantine, 579.
Negro, religious progress of the, 75; suffrage a failure: shall we abolish it? 797.
New impulse to an old gospel, a, 345.
New York City, the public-school system of, 616.
New York, special needs of the poor in, 492.
Next great problems of science, the, 42.
Northwest, Scandinavians in the, 103.
Novel, emotional tension and the modern, 735; what is a, 591.
PALMER, G. H. Can moral conduct be taught in schools? 673.
PARKER, GEORGE F. What immigrants contribute to industry, 600.
PEABODY, F. G. How should a city care for its poor? 474.
Peculiarities of Western life, provincial, 91.
Pennsylvania, the mine laborers in, 110.
Plan for more effective management, campaign committees: a, 39.
Poetry, the future of, 768.
Political stability and economic unrest, French, 653.
Politics, as a career, 445; women in English, 453.
Poor, how should a city care for its, 474; in New York, special needs of the, 492.
Popular education at the University of Michigan, 123.
POTTER, H. C. Sunday and the Columbian exposition, 194.
Primary the pivot of reform, the, 189.
Problems of science, the next great, 42.
Progress of the Negro, religious, 75.
Proportion of venal voters, the alarming, 1.
Provincial peculiarities of Western life, 91.
Publicity as a cure for corruption, campaign committees, 26.
Public schools, of Boston, the, 753; of St. Louis and Indianapolis, the, 429.
Public-school system, evils in Baltimore, our, 145; of New York City, the, 616; schools of Buffalo and Cincinnati, our, 293.
Quarantine, necessity for a national, 579.
Reciprocity, the Republican policy of, 255.
Reform, retrospective and prospective, tariff, 697; the primary the pivot of, 189.
Religious progress of the Negro, 75.
Remedy for labor troubles, the lesson of Homestead, a, 14.
Republican policy of reciprocity, the, 255.
"Revenue": what it really means, "a tariff for," 51.
Review of two administrations; civil-service reform, a, 201.
RICE, J. M. Our public-school system: evils in Baltimore, 145; our public-school system: schools of Buffalo and Cincinnati, 293; the public schools of Boston, 753; the public schools of St. Louis and Indianapolis, 429; the public-school system of New York City, 616.
RIIS, JACOB A. Special needs of the poor in New York, 492.
RILEY, JAMES WHITCOMB. Dialect in literature, 465.
ROOD, HENRY. The mine laborers in Pennsylvania, 110.
SAYRE, LEWIS A. Cholera: the lesson of preceding epidemics, 133.
Scandinavians in the Northwest, the, 103.
SCHIFF, J. H. For whom I shall vote and why, 393.
Schools of Buffalo and Cincinnati, our public-school system, 293.
SCHOULER, JAMES. For whom I shall vote and why, 390.
SCHWAB, GUSTAV H. A practical remedy for evils of immigration, 805.
Science, the next great problems of, 42.
Scott, Dickens, and Thackeray obsolete? are, 503.
SHAKESPEARE, E. O. Necessity for a national quarantine, 579.
Shall the State-bank tax be repealed? 571.
Silver, the crisis in, 553; purchase act, imminent danger from the, 789.
Socialism, and literary sterility, German, 660; Jay Gould and, 686; the Gothenburg plan, brandy and, 514.
Special needs of the poor in New York, 492.
SPOFFORD, AINSWORTH R. The library of the United States, 369.
St. Louis and Indianapolis, the public schools of, 429.
Suffrage a failure: shall we abolish it? Negro, 797.
Sunday, and the Columbian exposition, 194; why the fair must be open on, 541.

SWIFT, LUCIUS B. Civil-service reform: a review of two administrations, 201.
SWING, DAVID. For whom I shall vote and why, 401; the enlarged church, 67.
"Tariff for revenue": what it really means, "a," 51; reform, retrospective and prospective, 697.
Tax be repealed? shall the State-bank, 571.
Thackeray obsolete? are Scott, Dickens, and, 503.
Theatres and the American stage, endowed, 337.
THURSTON, ROBERT H. The next great problems of science, 42.
Treatment of China, a Chinaman on our, 85.
United States, the library of the, 369.
University of Michigan, popular education at the, 123.
VAN RENSSELAER, M. G. The artistic triumph of the fair-builders, 527.
Venal voters, the alarming proportion of, 1.
Venal voting: methods and remedies, 159.
Vote and why, for whom I shall, 390, 393, 395, 397, 398, 401, 402, 403.
Voters, the alarming proportion of venal, 1.
Voting: methods and remedies, venal, 159.
Wealth and business relations of the West, the, 631.
WELLS, DAVID A. "A tariff for revenue": what it really means, 51; tariff-reform: retrospective and prospective, 697.
WELLS, SPENCER. How to prevent the coming of cholera, 743.
WELSH, HERBERT. Compaign committees: publicity as a cure for corruption, 26.
Western life, provincial peculiarities of, 91.
West, the wealth and business relations of the, 631.
What immigrants contribute to industry, 600.
What is a novel? 591.
What we really know about Mars, 359.
Wherein popular education has failed, 411.
Why the fair must be open on Sunday, 541.
WICKLIFFE, JOHN C. Negro suffrage a failure: shall we abolish it? 797.
WILLIAMS, GEORGE FRED. Imminent danger from the silver-purchase act, 789.
WILSON, WM. L. The Republican policy of reciprocity, 255.
Women in English politics, 453.
Writers, 131, 265, 409, 551, 694, 806.
YEN, YUNG KIUNG. A Chinaman on our treatment of China, 85.